"Teachers of teachers! Yours the task,
Noblest that noble minds can ask
. . . Of you the growing mind demands
the patient care, the guiding hands,
Through all the mist of morn.
And knowing well the future's need,
Your prescient wisdom sows the seed
To flower in years unborn."

A Day in a Teacher's Life

"Let nothing pass, for every heart
Must find some work to do,
Lose not a chance to waken love—
Be firm and just and true
So shall a light that cannot fade
Beam on thee from on high
And angel-voices say to thee—
'These things shall never die.' "

Charles Dickens

Are losing theirs and blaming it on you . . .
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew

"Give truth, and your gift will be paid in kind,
And honor will honor meet . . .
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you."

Lost sometimes, but didn't wail,
Took our defeat, but kept going
Never letting our courage fail . . .
Kept our spirit undiminished,
Never failed to help a friend,
Played the game till it was finished,
Lived as Sportsmen to the end."

EXIT

"Though much is taken, much abides; and though
We are not now that strength which in old days
Moved earth and heaven, that which we are,
we are—
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate,
but strong in will,
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

"As time goes on and vision fades
We must reason to optic aids.
And even so, with hope that's full
We creep up on our annual.

When we grow old and eyesight fails us
There's little help for that which ails us.
But yet we must, on some Ad's look,
Still reading this our Memory Book."
